Hello, my name is Robert. I am an adrenalin junkie. I enjoy doing fast and dangerous sports. I prefer such sports because I want to test myself and want to see how far I can go. I like freedom and challenge. I have tried many extreme sports such as climbing a volcano, diving with sharks, rock climbing and skiing down a mountain. I tried parachuting last month and it was a good experience. It was the most exciting sport I have ever tried. I am looking forward to do it again because it was really challenging and dangerous. I also like sea life, so I often go windsurfing in the ocean. I dislike doing safer sports. To me, they are boring and there is no challenge. I think caving is the most boring of all.
